CERTIFICATE OF PROCLAMATION

On behalf of the citizens of Michigan, I, Governor Jennifer M. Granholm, do hereby proclaim September 26, 2010,

Caring Neighbor Day

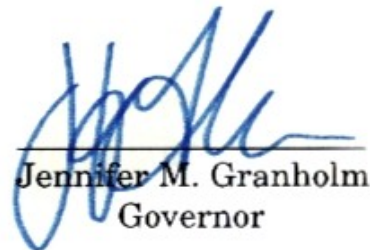

Whereas, Whether in a small village or a largely populated city, a good neighbor always can be found helping and caring for fellow residents through positive contributions; and,

Whereas, A simple gesture, an act of kindness, or just showing compassion toward others can help those in need overcome obstacles and life's challenges; and,

Whereas, No matter how big or small your efforts, every bit counts toward making our state a better place; and,

Whereas, By providing support to the families who have found themselves struggling, the residents of this state can improve lives and strengthen communities;

Now, Therefore, be it Resolved, That I, Jennifer M. Granholm, governor of the state of Michigan, do hereby proclaim September 26, 2010, Caring Neighbor Day in Michigan. I invite the residents of this state to find creative ways of expressing what it means to be a caring neighbor and, together with neighbors, find creative ways to bring prosperity back.
